

COMMERCIAL

The partners and associates who work on general commercial law within Prætica are experts in the practices of debt collection, usual commercial contracts (commercial agencies, commercial cooperation, sales concessions, commercial partnerships, transport etc.)

Some of them are authors of various articles and legal works on these subjects and often take part in conferences or symposiums.

Several of them are or have been teaching at Belgian universities.

WHAT WE OFFER OUR CLIENTS

Customers make an appeal to Prætica's commercial law expertise in order to:

- Obtain specialized legal advice regarding the development of their commercial activities, both on territory and abroad.
- Be assisted at negotiations and the drafting of conventions regarding agreements with their customers, suppliers, partners and commercial collaborators.
- Initiate judicial and extrajudicial proceedings aimed at securing the compliance of non-respected obligations and/or the debt collection.
- Receive assistance in any other contentious, non-contentious, judicial or extrajudicial situation in which their trader rights must be protected/safeguarded.

Our daily practice leads us to :

- Managing the pre-contentious, contentious, extrajudicial and judicial stages in the process of the recovery of unpaid debts by our clients.
- Provide verbal and written consultations on legal solutions in order to guide all forms of commercial collaboration, while recommending the best financial options.
- Making recommendations to our clients in order to avoid trial, promoting transactional agreements (including mediation procedures) and in other cases, to assist our clients in court and arbitration institutions by doing everything possible to lead them to victory.
- Initiate and pursue, in Belgium and abroad, negotiations aimed both at concluding new agreements and at ending disputes.
